AND A LACK OF INSPIRING
MEDIA COVERAGE OF HER SPORT.

Women's field hockey is exciting to watch, but rarely gets media coverage. Spotlighting high-level competition would show girls there are opportunities to play at elite levels - even professionally! When girls can see themselves in the game, they'll be able to imagine their own future involvement. With a commitment from all stakeholders, we can promote women's field hockey and keep girls playing the game they love.
