SHE'S GOT IT ALL: SPEED, AGILITY, STRENGTH, AND THE EXTRA CHALLENGE OF PEOPLE BELIEVING FOOTBALL ISN'T FOR GIRLS.

Football is one of the most popular spectator sports in North America. Girls want to play, but often people assume the sport isn't right for them. Negative stereotypes and a lack of role models, opportunities, and support systems all discourage girls from playing. Working to address these issues will help keep them in the game they love.
